

Essays

Instructions: Please complete your essay response in the box provided below. The admissions committee will review the content of your responses, as well as your ability to express yourself in writing.

1. Explain in detail your management style and your leadership traits. Incorporate feedback you've received and cite examples from your recent work history that illustrate both your personal strengths and your development objectives. (500 to 750 words)

Essays

Instructions: Please complete your essay response in the box provided below. The admissions committee will review the content of your responses, as well as your ability to express yourself in writing.

2. Describe a challenging leadership or managerial dilemma at work. Detail how you addressed the situation, the outcome, and what you learned from the experience. (500 to 750 words)

Essays

Instructions: Please complete your essay response in the box provided below. The admissions committee will review the content of your responses, as well as your ability to express yourself in writing.

3. Write about a great work-team experience. Include examples that illustrate how you have led and followed, given and received feedback, or grown and developed personally. (500 to 750 words)